

Dear customer

I am delighted to be able to offer my loyal customers a new initiative that will help both you and our planet. As you know my products are all packaged in glass containers and whilst they can be recycled, they usually have plenty of life still in them as the beautiful jar and bottle packaging that they were intended for.

I'm therefore delighted to announce that I am now able to offer a return scheme on your empty jars and bottles! (UK only)

The way it works is very simple, just save your empty green glass items from any of my products and when you have 6 items – which can be an assortment of jars* or bottles please send them back to me.

I will then in return offer you two things:

Free postage on your next order AND a free product of your choice from the following list:

Pillowspray x 30ml

Apothecary Balm 30g Day or Night cream

Apothecary Balm 50g Hand Cream

Apothecary Eye Cream 20g

80g handmade soap

When you have collected your 6 empties, just post them back to me at the address below and if you are happy to tick the box below to join my mailing list (don't worry I won't bombard you with e mails it will only be the odd one every so often and an easier way to get in touch)! I will then send you a code to use for the free postage on your next order. With that order I will include your free product!

All items sent back will be quality checked, cleaned and sterilised and new atomisers and pumps added to them so they can be reused several times over.

I totally understand if you don't want to join the mailing list and if you don't wish to you can still take advantage of this initiative, I just won't be able to offer you the free delivery code.

Either way I'd love you to be part of this to be able to help you enjoy some free products and help the environment too so get saving those bottles!

Many thanks for being such a loyal customer

Kind regards

Sue
